

Daryl Lim
SPILS Fellow
Stanford Law School

Daryl Lim is a Fellow in the Stanford University Program in International Legal Studies at Stanford Law School. He was a research scholar with the Max Planck Institute for Competition and Tax Law in Munich, and later a visiting scholar at the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies and Queen Mary IP Research Institute in London. He practiced as an advocate and solicitor in the Intellectual Property (“IP”) and Technology department at Allen & Gledhill LLP, Singapore’s largest law firm.

Mr. Lim’s articles have been featured in leading IP law reviews. His latest work is a book chapter to be published by Springer in 2009 entitled, “Innovation and Access: Legal Strategies at the Interface between Intellectual Property Rights and Competition Law.” Mr. Lim is a frequent speaker at international conferences, roundtables and workshops.